THAT GRANT INTERVIEW.

Rich Man Robbed.

Chicago, 5.—Daniel Brown, a wealthy citizen of Colorado, who has relatives in Denver and Chicago, and who has just come from Denver on a visit to his son in Yalo College, discovered when he resched the city that he had leat a pockethook with $800 in large bills, a draft on the Chemical Bank of New York for $2,000, tickets to New York and back to Denver, and a trunk check. Mr. Brown is strongly inclined to believe he was robbed and has surpicions of the thief, who he believes was a follow passenger to Chicago on the Rock Island Read between Davenport and Chicago.

New York's Registration. New York, 6.—The Tenes, speaking of yesterday's unpracedented registration, says the figures are sufficiently in excess of the normal proportions to demand most careful scrutiny. An examination of the registration in republicand districts, certainly gives no reason to doubt that the party voice will show on the Rd of Novamber, very great expansion, though it is useless to diguise the fact that so large a registration will be generally excepted as favorable to democratic success. On the basis of yesterday's registration there is reason to expect a total registration of over 200,000 and a total voice of not less than 190,000.

Systematic Robbery.

Their scheme was to sell begus tickets over the Kansas Pacific Road, cautioning purchasers to leave Denver on a certain train, thereby taking them through to Kansas City under supervision of the three conductors engaged in the conspiracy. The knownt cloim is unknown.
